FIRST MEETING WITH TEACHER. Six-year-old Cathy Weir is a little hesitant about beginning her new kindergarten experience, but willingly returns the smile of her teacher, Mrs. Lois Beicher, at Mark St. School. She was one of 561 children who attended their first session of the eight-week educational program this morning in the city's 10 elementary schools. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weir of 408 E. Fairground St. Although enrollment fell below the 606 advance registrations, school officials expressed belief this morning that attendance will rise in the next few days. The second annual kindergarten program, sponsored by the Marion City Board of Education, will run through Aug. 15.

Denies Motion To Stay Delay Order

Judge Affirms His Ruling In Little Rock Integration

Move Fought By NAACP In U.S. Court

Lemley Stands Pat in 2½-Year Suspension; Appeal Move Is Due

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley today denied a motion to stay his own order of Saturday which suspended integration in Little Rock schools for 2½ years.

The judge said that to grant a stay would keep the racial situation at Central High School intolerable because too much time would be consumed in processing a Negro attorney's appeal of his order.

Asking for Instructions

Wiley Branton, attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, who made the motion, said he planned to telephone the U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to ask for instructions on appealing the integration suspension order. He already had filed a notice of appeal here.

"I don't know at this point exactly how this is going to be handled," Branton told a reporter. "I may have to go to the chief circuit judge's home."

He said nothing about appealing today's rejection for a stay.

The Little Rock School Board opposed Branton's motion for a stay on ground it would be in the interest of the Negro pupils, only, not the public.

Issues Written Opinion

Lemley, in a written opinion, which was issued an hour after a brief recess of the hearing, said: "To grant this motion and stay the enforcement of our judgment would to a large extent nullify our order in the cause since it will in all probability take months to carry the case through the Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court."

"And in the meantime, the situation at Central High School, which we have found to be intolerable from an educational standpoint, would continue," he said.

A. F. House of Little Rock appeared for the school board.

Oral arguments took only six minutes.

The courtroom was nearly filled with spectators. Branton was the only Negro attorney present.

A stay by any of the courts, torney for the National Assn. for Branton said, would mean that the racial situation at Central High would be just as it was when the 1957-58 school year ended.

In granting the school board's petition for a delay of integration until mid-semester 1961, Judge Lemley conceded that "the Negro students in Little Rock district have a constitutional right not to be excluded from any of the public schools on account of race; but the board has convincingly shown that the time for the enjoyment of that right has not yet come."

Dag Confers With Nasser On Lebanon

Secretary for U.N. Consults Arabs in Bid To Quiet Rebellion

CAIRO (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold pressed his campaign to quiet the Lebanese rebellion with President Nasser and the government of the United Arab Republic today.

Hammarskjold met with Nasser Sunday night a few hours after arriving from Amman and Jerusalem. He left Beirut Saturday after talks with the Lebanese government on their charges that Nasser has sent arms and men across the Syria-Lebanon border to aid the rebels.

Will Receive Warning

Informed sources said U. A. R. officials would warn Hammarskjold against foreign interference in Lebanon and insist once more than their government is not aiding the rebels. Nasser contends that the Lebanese crisis is completely internal, and that pro-Western President Camille Chamoun is seeking a pretext for the United States and Britain to send troops to his aid.

Hammarskjold is to return to Beirut Tuesday and is scheduled to leave for New York the next day.

U. N. headquarters in New York announced that the United States was providing two helicopters and Sweden four light observation planes for the use of the U. N. observer group the Security Council has sent to Lebanon to check on any infiltrations from Syria.

Plans Watchdog Team

In Lebanon, meanwhile, the U.N. mission planned to establish a watchdog team today in the strategic Bekaa border area despite go-slow warnings from rebel leaders in the area.

Observers turned back from the Bekaa Valley Saturday but Col. Maurice Brown, the New Zealand senior officer with the mission, denied reports the rebels had prevented them forcibly from taking up positions there.

Brown said the local rebel chief had told the U. N. officers they should not try to get to the borders too soon. A Beirut leader of the anti-Chamoun forces, Hussein Oweini, also said the watchdog team had been advised against approaching the border for its own protection.

Oweini said his forces wanted to cooperate with the U. N. group but could not guarantee its safety "in remote frontier areas where people may not understand the object of the mission."

Brown also denied reports that the U. N. officers had been fired on in the Bekaa Valley Saturday. He said his men only heard some shooting in the area.

The Bekaa region has been described as one major route for the Syrian aid which the Lebanese government charges the rebels are getting.

Hungarians Demonstrate In New York

Violence Erupts as Refugees March on Soviet Headquarters

NEW YORK (AP) — Hungarian refugees demonstrating outside headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations Sunday tried to crash through police lines and trampled several policemen.

The demonstrators smashed three windows of the Park Avenue building. Seven policemen and a number of pickets were injured, none seriously.

The violent outbreak came, police said, at what appeared to be a prearranged signal. It turned into a melee between 350 pickets and nearly 100 policemen. Nine pickets were arrested.

The demonstrators had been peacefully marching and handing out leaflets of the Federation of Former Hungarian Political Prisoners before the violence erupted.

This was the second outbreak of violence at the Manhattan building over the weekend. Anti-Soviet pickets broke two windows Saturday and three arrests followed.

Both demonstrations were to protest the execution of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy

Prober Would Call Morgan

Quiz of Ike's Legal Aide Is Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep Morgan Moulder (D-Mo) suggested today that House investigators call Gerald D. Morgan, President Eisenhower's special counsel, saying: "From what I hear, Mr. Morgan is more of a front man than Mr. Adams."

Moulder said in an interview he understands Morgan is more accessible than Sherman Adams to persons seeking help from the White House. Moulder did not go into detail.

A House subcommittee, of which Moulder is a member, resumes hearings Tuesday on contacts admittedly made by Adams, Eisenhower's top assistant, with two regulatory agencies on behalf of Bernard Goldfine, a millionaire Boston industrialist.

Adams, the center of a growing political storm, acknowledged accepting hotel hospitality and gifts from Goldfine, who he said is an old friend. Although conceding he was imprudent, Adams has denied seeking or getting any favored treatment for Goldfine, who was having troubles with the Federal Trade Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There was no sign Eisenhower has changed his stated intention to retain Adams, whom he has described as a man of honesty and integrity.

But that didn't stem the rising volume of demands that Adams step down. Some of the strongest demands have come from Republicans.

Adams Says No to Bid To Run for Governor

HANCOCK, N.H. (AP) — Sherman Adams today declined an invitation to seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in New Hampshire's Sept. 9 primaries.

"I feel I have a job to finish here," the top presidential assistant wrote from Washington to a former federal judge who asked Adams to re-enter the political arena in his home state.

Adams served as New Hampshire governor from 1949 to 1953.

Appeals Court To Get Sickles Trial Records

Clerk of Courts Margaret Howser said she intends to file with the Third District Court of Appeals today the 576-page bill of exceptions prepared from testimony taken during the James P. Sickles trial here in late May and early June last year.

Filing of the bill of exceptions and briefs from the defense and prosecution are required before the appellate court can consider the case.

Miss Virginia Weiss of Newark, Sickles' attorney, is appealing her client's conviction on charges of shooting with intent to kill, breaking and entering, carrying a concealed weapon and possession of burglary tools. Sickles was sentenced to 4 to 43 years in prison on the charges.

The charges were filed against Sickles after a break-in at Carl's Auto Parts Warehouse on Oak St. the night of Feb. 13, 1957. During a running gun battle with city police, Sickles was wounded five times and Patrolman Marshall Wilds was wounded in the chest.

Miss Weiss filed her notice of appeal after Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith rejected her request for a new trial last June. She also has appealed to the Ohio Supreme Court from refusal of lower courts to dissolve a $520 attachment obtained by the city to pay Sickles' hospital bill here.

Mrs. Russell Brady, Judge Smith's secretary, and Mrs. Marion Pierstorff, court reporter, began preparing the bill of exceptions early last July. A complete record of all trial proceedings, the bill of exceptions was prepared from the 119 recorded discs that were cut during the trial.

Child, 4, Killed By Automobile In Carrothers

Girl Runs Into Path Of Car Driven by Cincinnati Motorist

CARROTHERS — A four-year-old Carrothers child, who darted in front of a car on Rt. 4 Sunday night in crossing from her home to her church, was struck by the auto and fatally injured, investigating state patrolmen of the Bucyrus post reported today.

The youngster, Deborah I. Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Patrick, was pronounced dead upon arrival at Willard Memorial Hospital. Death was attributed to a broken neck, patrolmen said.

Car Skids 60 Feet

They reported the child was struck by a northbound auto driven by Ralph E. Riddlebarger, 37, of Cincinnati. The driver applied the brakes and the auto skidded 60 feet, but he was unable to avoid hitting the child, officers said.

An older sister, with whom the four-year-old girl had been standing at the side of the road, ran across the highway seconds earlier, according to the report. Deborah waited to cross, however, until a southbound auto had passed.

Five Sisters Survive

Apparently not seeing the approaching northbound Riddlebarger vehicle, she then darted across the road and was struck down. Patrolmen said the mishap occurred just north of the Crawford County line in Seneca County at 7:29 p.m.

Born Oct. 13, 1953, to Edward Patrick and Vivian Lykins Patrick, the child was the youngest of six

French Study Contacts With Chinese Reds

PARIS (AP) — Reports circulated in Paris today that moves are under way to open a form of diplomatic relations between France and Communist China.

"The matter has been discussed," a Foreign Office official said, "but nothing has been decided."

The reports appeared Sunday and today in a number of Paris newspapers. One said no concrete steps will be taken until after the meeting in Paris July 5 between Premier de Gaulle and Secretary of State Dulles.

France, like the United States, does not recognize Red China. France is a member of Chincom, an organization of all North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations, except Iceland, which regulates trade with Peiping in articles of strategic importance. Japan also is a member.

Chincom is in the process of revising the strategic list and is expected to announce the changes within the next few weeks.

Paris newspapers said there is little likelihood that France will accord outright recognition to Red China.

Deluge Brings Flash Floods In South Texas

DALLAS (AP) — Downpours ranging up to nearly 7 inches brought new flood threats to south Texas today as a mass of cold air set off thundershowers over most of the state.

Nine persons were rescued by firemen and police from flooded streets at San Antonio after a violent storm dumped 4.50 inches on the city.

Driving rains and winds up to 80 m.p.h. carved a path 10 miles long and several miles wide through croplands near Runge, 60 miles southeast of San Antonio. Trees were uprooted by the storm which dumped 3.50 inches of rain in the area.

The heaviest rainfall — 6.25 inches—was at Orange but caused no appreciable damage.

Another heavy downpour of 5.50 inches fell near Leakey sending the west prong of the Frio River on a seven-foot rise.

Movie Star's Yacht Missing In China Sea

Boat Carrying Five Disappears on Trip From Formosa Port

TOKYO (AP) — All Japanese fishing vessels in the East China Sea were ordered to look out today for an American yacht which may be drifting near the Communist Chinese mainland with Hollywood actor John Calvert and four others aboard.

The 95-ton, two-masted Thespian of Los Angeles, owned and skippered by Calvert, left Keelung, Formosa, in bad weather last Monday. The actor expected to reach Japan Thursday or Friday. The yacht had just been fitted with a new engine and Calvert sailed against the advice of friends.

On Friday a vessel similar to the white yacht was sighted by a Japanese trawler only 80 miles southeast of Shanghai. It was reported drifting northwest in a calm sea, halfway between Formosa and the Thespian's destination in southern Japan.

The report did not alarm Japanese coast guard officials. They said the vessel may reach southern Japan in a day or two.

Calvert is a former stage magician who played the Falcon on television and movie heavy roles.

Killed by Lightning

BERGAMO, Italy (AP)—Lightning killed three mountaineers Sunday as they carried an iron cross up 7,500-foot Mt. Arera to plant it on the peak in an act of devotion.

Many others in the group of 40 Roman Catholic pilgrims were injured.

Disagrees With Stand

McElroy Says Rebuke Of Burke Not Intended

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense McElroy says he can disagree with a service chief's testimony on defense reorganization without rebuking the officer involved.

He disclaimed Sunday any such intention in saying earlier he was disappointed at what he called the regrettable stand taken before the Senate Armed Services Committee last week by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations. Burke had expressed reservations about some parts of the reorganization plan.

McElroy first spoke out in response to newsmens' questions during a press conference Saturday at the Quantico, Va., Marine base. The occasion was the annual meeting of the top uniformed and civilian leaders of the Defense Department.

But before the conference ended Sunday, McElroy got out a statement describing as incorrect any idea that what he said about Burke's testimony "constituted a rebuke to Adm. Burke." He added: "The Secretary can be disappointed, and he can regret parts of an officer's testimony without it being anything more than that."

McElroy's press aides also emphasized that at his news conference the defense secretary had described Burke as a fine officer and had said he had no plans for changing Burke's assignment.

Bridges, Knowland Balking

GOP's Senate Leaders Head Fight Against Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members from both parties apparently are making it difficult for Republicans to build up the campaign theme that President Eisenhower needs a GOP Congress to get his legislative program approved.

The contention that the Democrats in Congress are hamstringing the President's proposals has been one of the main talking points of GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn. Eisenhower himself used practically the same argument in an informal talk to the GOP state chairmen last Thursday.

But the Democrats and the Republicans are marking up a voting record in Congress that seems unlikely to sustain the GOP campaign argument.

For instance, unless all the signs fail, Senate Democrats will have to furnish the lion's share of votes if Eisenhower's request for a five-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act is approved.

Just as Republicans provided much of the opposition in the House, so the Senate finds its two top Republican leaders aligned against Eisenhower.

Senators Styles Bridges (R-HN) and William F. Knowland (R-Calif) are leading a drive to cut the extension to three years. Bridges heads the party policy committee and Knowland is minority floor leader.

On the other hand, some of those counted among the strongest GOP supporters of the trade program voted against many of the administration's amendments to the labor regulation bill the Senate has passed. These included Sena-

Four Leaders Visit White House

Ike Told Negroes Bitter At Little Rock Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Negro leaders today told President Eisenhower that court-ordered suspension of school integration at Little Rock, Ark., has shocked and outraged Negro citizens and millions of their fellow Americans.

At a White House conference with Eisenhower, the Negroes said the court decision handed down last weekend is being construed, rightly or wrongly, as a green light to lawless elements in their defiance of federal authority.

Issue Prepared Statement

The views of the Negro leaders were set forth in a prepared statement, which was handed to newsmen after their 45-minute meeting with the President.

A. Philip Randolph, president of the International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, said at a news conference that Eisenhower made no comment on the court ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Harry Lemley.

Randolph added that neither did Eisenhower make any promise nor commitments with respect to a nine-point program offered by the Negro leaders with a view to improving the conditions of their people.

Raise Rights Issues

The immediate emphasis was on the Little Rock situation and school integration, but the Negro leaders had made it plain in advance they would raise a wide range of civil rights issues.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said the Little Rock situation would be a major topic.

Galion Class Holds Its First Reunion

GALION — The class of 1918 of Galion High School held its first reunion and commemorated the 40th anniversary of graduation Saturday night at Hotel Talbott. There were 42 classmembers and guests present. Charles B. Monroe was toastmaster and the Rev. Robert Miller offered the table prayer. Later he read the names of the 11 deceased members, and concluded with an appropriate poem.

Mrs. L. E. Place of Galion, chairman of the reunion, called the roll at which time each member told of family, occupation, and hobbies. Mrs. Lawrence Neumann, secretary of the class, read letters from absent members as the roll was called.

Dinner arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Albert Ritzhaupt. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Place, Mrs. Neumann, Mrs. Clarence Kurtzman, Charles B. Monroe, Mrs. Harold Pace, Arla Pfeifer and Mrs. Ritzhaupt.

Rail Wreck Fatal To 20 in Mexico

ORIZABA, Mexico (AP) — At least 10 persons were killed and 20 injured when a runaway electric train crashed into a crowded railroad station Sunday at Maltrata Point, near Orizaba.

Searchers combed through the wreckage, and some 25 persons were reported unaccounted for.

The electric train, on a regular run from Orizaba to the Gulf Coast port of Veracruz, apparently was stopped by a power shortage. Officials of the government railway said when power returned, the train started up automatically and raced three miles out of control.

Preliminary investigation indicated the brakes failed. Witnesses reported the crew tried desperately to dump sand on the tracks in an effort to halt the speeding train. Passengers leaped from the cars as they hurtled toward the station.

Balloon Ascension Tops Air Park's Attractions

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — George Stone, 35, of Eastlake, ascended 800 feet in a balloon at the opening of Concord Air Park south of here Sunday as 30,000 persons watched.

Ralph Nailor, 72, of Mentor, an old-time ascension expert who built the 100-foot muslin balloon, said he believed it was the first time in 40 years that anyone in Ohio had gone up in a balloon. He said he did it at Cleveland's Luna Park at the end of World War I.

Stone, a member of the Sky Divers Club of Cleveland, had planned to make a parachute jump from a 30-foot trapeze ladder trailing the balloon, but was unable to go high enough to make the jump.

Patrol Halts Animal Circus on Way to Galion

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — An animal circus en route to Galion, about 45 miles west of here, was bogged down at the Wooster Fairgrounds today because its four trucks are being held by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

The circus was stopped Sunday and the trucks were taken to the patrol garage because they did not have state axle-mile tax stickers.

Officers said two of the drivers also would be charged with not having a driver's license.

Buckeye Girls Staters Select Party Leaders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The battle for political supremacy of the mythical 49th state — Buckeye Girls' State—began in earnest today.

Out of Sunday's caucuses of the Nationalist and Federalist parties came the narrowed field of candidates who will compete for state office nominations in Tuesday's primary. They filed petitions today.

The whole idea, of course, is to teach 806 high school girls from 85 of Ohio's 88 counties how state government works. Guided by members of the American Legion Auxiliary and alumnae of other Girls' States, the girls are operating their own government from the city level on up.

Ann Cook, 17, of Willoughby, explained how it feels to be a candidate. A candidate for governor herself, she declared:

"It's a challenge. I might as well give it a try."

Her motto: "With me, the cookie won't crumble."

Two girls won't be able to vote. They are Inger Olsen, 17, of Wickliffe, a Norwegian by birth, who cannot become a citizen until she reaches 18, and Maureen Gilway, 16, formerly of England and now from Huntsburg in Geauga County.

As non-citizens, they won't be allowed to hold office, either, but both expect to be that much better-prepared when they do become eligible for citizenship papers.

Both parties named leaders Sunday, and mayors were elected.

Antra Priede of East Cleveland is leader of the Nationalists and Barbara Folkerth of Columbus heads the Federalist party. Mayors elected include:

Judy Zevnik, Euclid; Phyllis Antonelli, Cleveland; Bernadine Maestropietro, Youngstown; Rita Lepkowski, Elyria; Nancy Muhlenkamp, St. Henry; Sue Donaldson, Lyndhurst; Martha Elliott, Madison; Mary Hulfman, Minster, and Lynn Dixon, Bellaire.

Heads Veterans Group

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Ray C. Niemi, a fire department captain at Warren, was re-elected commander of the Army and Navy Union, Department of Ohio, as the veterans organization ended its 40th encampment here Sunday. Americo Iafelice of Cleveland was named senior vice commander. Officers elected by the auxiliary included Mrs. Ray Middaugh of Toledo, president; and Mrs. Gustav Ebding of Cleveland, junior vice president.

Educator Urges Higher Standard In Teaching Field

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —It might be the lesser evil to close a school than put an incompetent teacher in it, representative of 35 state teacher education and certification agencies have been warned.

The warning came Sunday from Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, president of Bowling Green State University, as he welcomed the representatives to the 36th annual meeting of the National Assn. of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification.

"You cheat a child more and more permanently by putting an incompetent teacher in the classroom and calling him a teacher than you can by closing down the classroom," he declared.

McDonald then urged his audience to demand four-year college preparation for teaching and to make all initial teaching certificates probationary. With lower standards, the best students will not be attracted to teaching, he asserted.

Burglars Hit Crawford Inn

Get $10-$12 in Cash; Building Ransacked

BUCYRUS — Cozy Inn, located about one mile east of here on Rt. 30-N, was ransacked and between $10 and $12 in change taken sometime after 3:30 a.m. Sunday, the Crawford County sheriff's department reported today.

Deputies said the break-in was reported by Ralph Lightman, owner, Sunday. He discovered that entry to the building had been gained by breaking a wood door panel at the rear and smashing in a screen door.

Found ransacked were drawers, counters and a closet. The front of a jukebox was broken out as were four jukebox attachments at tables. The burglars did not succeed in getting the money in the jukebox, however, deputies reported. Only petty cash was taken.

In these papers, a more secure future...

The most unselfish purchase a man makes

He can't wear it. Or drive it. Or display it for people to see. Probably the most unselfish purchase a man makes is life insurance.

Yet this purchase does bring something to its owner. For example, the feeling that he is truly a good provider. That he is meeting his responsibilities to those who mean the world to him.

What is this feeling worth?—Plenty, any father can tell you. He has a feeling of security that could be gained in no other way.

Yes, life insurance is an unselfish purchase. But it brings great and satisfying rewards to the purchaser just the same.

They Never Hoped for the Summit

Apparently by common consent, all designs for reaching a summit conference in diplomacy have been chucked into the wastebasket.

Even the Kremlin's design seems to have been discarded. The United States is "restudying" its attitude toward the Soviet Union. France is preoccupied with other matters. There is no clamor for post-haste action on a summit conference because the illusion that some good might come out of it has been shattered .The executions of Hungarian political leaders whose Communism was more Titoist than Stalinist completed the disenchantment.

It is significant that a hearing before the House Committee on un-American Activities last April 30 and released June 17 foreshadowed the disenchantment.

Operating under a law that authorizes it to keep tab on all activities and propaganda harmful to the United States, the House committee questioned four men possessing special information about psychological warfare and Russian psychological warfare in particular on April 30 on "What Is Behind the Soviet Proposal for a Summit Conference?"

The quartet of experts reached easy agreement under close questioning that a summit conference would be a grave setback for the free world; that it would help to crush the resistance of enslaved people and that the Kremlin's main purpose in seeking it was not to negotiate peace but disarm the West intellectually and psychologically.

Thus, at the very time that the White House was stepping up its efforts to keep a summit conference in view, with a proposal for Arctic inspection, a standing committee of Congress was looking into the agitation for such a conference under its authority to protect the United States against un-American activities. It could not have foreseen that by June 17, when its findings were released, that they would have been confirmed by events, but that seems to be the present shape of things.

If failure to win a summit conference were the cause of what appears to be another explosion in the Kremlin, the most important event of 1958 might prove to be something that never happened.

St. Lawrence Seaway Isn't Suez

Preliminary discussion of St. Lawrence Seaway tolls, as recommended by U.S. and Canadian committees, shows the possibility of angry differences of opinion before official schedules can be adopted by the U.S. Congress and the Canadian Parliament.

Two possibilities in particular are shooting off sparks.

One is the hint by East Coast port interests that tolls must be forced as high as possible to protect their profitable monopoly on ocean shipping.

The other is the bland assumption by eastern port and rail interests that St. Lawrence Seaway tolls can be compared properly with tolls on shipping that passes through the Suez and Panama canals.

St. Lawrence Seaway tolls must be based by law on the capitalization of the seaway, itself. They must be designed to pay operating costs, interest on the bonded debt and the ultimate retirement of the debt.

They cannot be compared properly with any other canal in existence or misused to preserve the interests of any other means of transportation.

These questions were decided once and for all by Congress in 1954. The St. Lawrence Seaway is a joint nonprofit enterprise of the United States and Canada. As far as many Canadians are concerned, they would prefer to have it toll-free—supported wholly by the government, like a public highway.

The United States, on the other hand, is inclined to think of it as a "toll road," paying for itself over a period of years. In this respect, the United States should have learned a lesson from the experience of toll roads.

There is an exact point where maximum use and maximum revenue come together. The Ohio Turnpike, for example did not find that point until it had reduced tolls on trucks to the point where truckers could not afford to use alternate routes.

That is the point the toll-setters in Washington and Ottawa must try to reach when they make their official decision. They should not listen to defenders of the port of New York, people who want to make phony comparisons with Suez, or spokesmen for competing facilities of transportation, all of whom want the St. Lawrence Seaway to fail.

Only Congress Can Make Law

It becomes a puzzle sometimes whether critics of U.S. Supreme Court decisions described as invasions of the rights of Congress read the decisions.

The recent decision about passports is an illustration.

The Supreme Court held that no existing federal law authorized the secretary of state to deny passports because of "beliefs or associations" of the applicants. It invited Congress to spell out a legislative policy that would clarify the problem for the State Department.

Critics of the Supreme Court immediately accused it of being tender to Communists and to persons suspected of Communist sympathy. They appaarently did not read the passage in the majority decision which said: "We are dealing here with citizens who have neither been accused of crimes nor found guilty. They are being denied their freedom of movement solely because of their refusal to be subjected to inquiry into their beliefs and associations. They do not seek to escape the law nor to violate it. They may or may not be Communists. But assuming they are, the only law which Congress has passed expressly curtailing the movement of Communists across our borders has not yet become effective."

Elsewhere, the majority decision said: "The right of exit is a personal right included within the word 'liberty' as used in the Fifth Amendment. If that 'liberty' is to be regulated, it must be pursuant to the lawmaking functions of the Congress.

In other words, the Supreme Court was inviting Congress to pass a law that would clear up passport procedure. Such a law had been proposed with State Department approval in 1956 and never passed by Congress. It now has been proposed again by Rep. Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania. Sen. Hennings of Missouri also intends to propose a law, which would make passport procedures more lenient, instead of more restrictive, thereby bringing the issue squarely before Congress.

It is not always an invasion of congressional rights when the Supreme Court calls attention to legislative cloudiness. Sometimes it is an appeal to Congress to get on the job and pass better laws so the Supreme Court can make better rulings and quit being a whipping boy for over-emotional critics.

Kindergarten Opens

More than 560 Marion youngsters trooped off to school today, two months and more before the official start of the 1958-59 school year. They are the children enrolled in the city's summer kindergarten.

The kindergarten is designed to orient new first graders to school life. They will become acquainted with the school buildings, with some of their teachers, and with school routine. In the "Safety Town" program offered in conjunction with the kindergarten, they'll learn the proper way to cross streets and other safety practices.

Tests conducted by school personnel after last year's kindergarten, which was the first one held, indicate that youngsters who took the summer training got a head start on their fellow classmates who did not. They scored higher in reading readiness and were better adjusted to becoming members of a group, to leaving the home, and to classroom routine.

The important role of education in modern society should move parents to give their children every opportunity for schooling. Marion's summer kindergarten is such as opportunity.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The Man Who Built a Better Mousetrap thinks good times are near. "My mousetrap salesmen are on their toes for the first time in the memory of the mice," he declared today.

"My staff is alert and cooperative. My directors all feel that we can turn out a better mousetrap at a lower price. On top of all this our statistical department says that there were more mice in the country during the first half of 1958 than during the same period of last year."

HE WAS MOST optimistic. "Like many industries we had become pretty careless," he continued. "We had mousetrap salesmen who wouldn't get out of their chairs, no matter how serious the mouse situation might be. Our engineers had gone overboard in making fancier, bigger and more de luxe mousetraps.

"We were spending vast sums for TV shows which didn't catch either the human audience or the mice, but scared both. Now we have got back to fundamentals. I am closing the factory wing built for studies of holes in traps.

"I have discarded the design for a push-button trap, making it easier for mice to get in. The purpose of a mousetrap is to catch mice, not to entertain or amuse them. Out with all nonsense about a lower center or gravity, streamlines and stainless steel springs!"

THE MAN WHO BUILT a Better Mousetrap added that he was abolishing the idea of promoting the mousetrap demand by trips around the world, mink coats and free automobiles for the best slogans in 25 words or less on "Why I think a mousetrap in a house full of mice is a good idea."

"Only yesterday," he concluded, "I turned down an offer from a big cheese corporation which wanted to share with me the sponsorship of a video western or a quiz show to increase the sales of our products. I wish to be known not only as the builder of a better mousetrap but as the builder of an aversion to the belief a product can only be sold through a cowboy drama or questions like, 'What was the first name of U.S. Grant?' "

Definitely Going the Wrong Way

Ike's Right-Hand Man

By David Barnett

Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams has under his command the largest staff in White House history to handle the "legion" of requests that he told a congressional committee come to his desk.

Adams said his calls to regulatory agencies for Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine were a "routine matter." It was "part and parcel of practically our daily duties," he contended.

Almost 400 persns now make up the total White House staff to handle such duties. The figure includes regular civil service workers and 46 members of President Eisenhower's personal staff. The cost of running this staff is expected to reach $3,400,000 during the current fiscal year.

President Harry Truman, in 1952, had a White House staff of 262, with 15 on his personal staff. Franklin D. Roosevelt by 1945 had a "brain trust" of 14; Herbert Hoover, an intimate group of five.

BY ADAMS' ACCOUNT, the White House needs the manpower. He told the committee, "I try to see to it that every person who calls the White House has a reply if that reply involves a legitimate question or request."

The presidential assistant gave the committee a rare insight into the inner workings of the President's office.

Even requests that prompt personal calls from Adams to the commissioner of one of the so-called independnet regulatory agencies are not rare. Adams can make so many, he explained, because "it doesn't take me very long to make a telephone call."

What kind of information does a White House staffman solicit when he makes such a call? He seeks the answer, Adams indicated, to this question: "What can I say to the person who makes inquiry to me?"

The manner in which the White House acts, he said, ' is a result of a rather long history of routine. Whether that is wise or not I would consider subject to consideration by your committee."

An essential part of Adam's job is to handle the special pleaders —congressmen, executive officials and influential individuals. He got the assignment as a result of the vast reorganization of the presidential office that started when Eisenhower took office. As a high aide put it in 1953:

"Ike's idea is that the President should rid himself of pressures, should not be an operating branch of government where labor disputes, Civil Aeronautics Board decisions and administrative details of all varieties are handled. His White House is a place where national policies will be worked out and all else excluded."

THEY APPARENTLY are excluded because Adams handles them himself or through the staff. The best known "assistant presidents" of the past, Col. House during Woodrow Wilson's tenure and Harry Hopkins during the period of Franklin Roosevelt, where special trouble-shooters who could break across the regular lines of communications in the executive branch. Adams sits on the switch on the train of communications.

Consequently, President Eisenhower has delegated more authority and has more free time than any President since Calvin Coolidge.

Adams, in July 1953, said his function was "neither to functionalize or institutionalize but rather to departmentalize."

In handling this function of "departmentalizing," Adams is the only man in the White House who has the authority in the President's absence to direct the various agencies to take action.

Essentially, this function is really two: The White House staff actually takes some of the administrative actions required of the office of chief executive and it represents the President in dealing with most individuals.

The other important operation of Adams and company is to analyze problems of policy and to provide the President with concise alternatives for action.

Some members of the White House staff and some Cabinet officers can manage to get to the President without interference from Adams.

AMONG THESE are the specialists such as Press Officer James Hagerty, legislative liaison man, Maj. Gen. Wilton (Jerry) Persons, Economic Aide Gabriel Hauge, Science Adviser Dr. James Killian Jr .and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

But, more and more, even these top operators are working through the White House staff and the Cabinet rather than taking their problems straight to the President's office.

The new Cabinet system, instituted by Max Rabb and now being refined by his successor, Robert Gray, provides a method for group resolution of major policy problems when time is available.

The system involves formalized presentations, often as carefully rehearsed as a television performance, of the problem and alternative solutions. And the President usually follows the majority decision made after the presentations.

Most of the issues that come before the 19-member Cabinet sessions cut across department lines and are in the area of domestic affairs. Defense and foreign policy matters usually are handled, if time permits, in similar fashion by the smaller National Security Council.

That leaves to Adams the "detail work."

As Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) chairman of the committee, pointed out, Adams' duties "are tremendous. Your actions have far-reaching effects."

Purely Personal

I envy women for the convenience of the handbags they carry and also for the designs and material in these good-looking accessories. A man's wallet is a poor substitute for a tooled leather bag big enough to pack a light lunch.

It is not difficult to get the impression that Uncle Sam is being nagged by diplomatic jokesters in the Communist bloc, whose aim is to keep the old boy from maintaining the composure that is his best bet for survival.

I wonder what the critics who blame chief executives for standing by their appointees when dead cats sail through the air would say if chief executives turned their backs on the appointees, instead? Or would that conform with the critics' ideas of decency?

Judged by its ability to squeeze through an opening as small as the hole in a wren house, the wren is composed of five parts feathers to one part bird.

I can see nothing but frustration and failure ahead in politics, unless politicians take positions and try to rally support for themselves, instead of everlastingly trying to outguess public opinion.

The savory concoction of lettuce wilted by hot vinegar and bacon grease and eaten with flakes of crisp bacon that was referred to in a previous column was called "Dutch lettuce," if I remember correctly, and therefore may be of Pennsylvania Dutch origin.

The idea of using tranquilizers on babies with temper tantrums give me the shakes, until I remember that many of the great men of today were quieted with paregoric, an opium derivative.

I wonder where the wearers of those ornate academic "hoods" that put so much bounce into commencement exercises keep the things when they are not in use. If I possessed one, I would hang it over the fireplace, with a sign under it to explain what it meant.

There have been only a few times this year when the temperature was high enough to make gardening the uplifting experience for me it is billed to be by gardening enthusiasts.

I can think of nothing funnier than a conversation between two people who do not know what they are talking about explaining something to each other as if they knew the subject inside out.

If I had to put on a funny hat and apron and make use of all the fumadiddle implements I have been given, I never could be persuaded to cook another beefsteak on the charcoal grill I keep hidden for special occasions.

Ike Sets an Example

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Eisenhower himself has set an example for Sherman Adams and all other government employes in accepting gifts. He has received for his personal use gifts totaling thousands of dollars.

He tried, in his news conference last week, to say when it is and isn't all right for a man in public office to accept gifts. The line he drew was far from sharp or distinct.

Maybe such a line can't be drawn. But because it hasn't been drawn both Eisenhower and Adams, his chief assistant, find themselves in contradictory positions.

IF A CLEAR line can't be drawn it would seem any man in public office should lean over backwards —way over backwards—to avoid doing anything which might embarrass him or the government or cause suspicion.

This is what Eisenhower said: "The circumstances surrounding the innocent receipt by a public official of any gifts are therefore important, so that the public may clearly distinguish between innocent and guilty action.

"Among these circumstances are the character and reputation of the individual, the record of his subsequent actions, and evidence of intent or lack of intent to exert undue influence."

BUT THIS explanation overlooks some very human and subtle questions:

1. Would a man in public office, intentionally or not, be more favorably inclined to do something or decide something or use his influence for a person who gives him something than for one who doesn't?

2. Should a man in public office —for fear of appearing to return a favor—let himself be in the position of refusing to do for an individual who gave him a gift something he'd freely do for a stranger?

A man in public office could easily avoid both dilemmas — dilemmas with which he should never have to be confronted — by refusing gifts from anyone who has or might have any business with the government.

WHEN BERNARD Goldfine, Adams' gift-giving friend, a businessman, got into trouble with a federal agency, he went to Adams in the White House to find out why. Adams got the information for him, information which a House subcommittee lawyer said it was against the law to reveal.

Then Adams offered this contradictory explanation of his conduct:

He said what he did for Goldfine—getting the information from the agency — was the kind of routine thing he or his staff would do for anyone who came to him. But at the same time he conceded maybe his judgment was bad.

SEVERAL YEARS ago Eisenhower said: "I can't believe anybody on my staff would ever be guilty of an indiscretion. But if anything came to my attention of that kind . . . that individual would be gone."

At his news conference Eisenhower, while describing Adams as "imprudent," announced at the same time he would keep him because "I need him."

Eisenhower certainly has needed Adams. It's because of Adams' long and dedicated hours at his desk—taking a lot of the load off Eisenhower—that Eisenhower has had so much time to himself, including time for golf.

Human Scalp Roofer

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Keep this under your hat, fellows, but if you're going bald, Louis Feder may have just the thing for you.

HAL BOYLE

It's "the air-conditioned hairpiece," which weighs less than an ounce and is guaranteed to be hurricane proof.

"It's so light it breaths . . . absolutely no feeling on the head," said Ben Kaplan, executive vice president of the House of Louis Feder. "And please don't refer to it as a wig or toupee. Those terms are anathema in our industry. It is a hairpiece."

FEDER, A PIONEER human scalp roofer since he emigrated from Austria half a century ago, startled the industry with a new crew cut model hairpiece several years ago. Sales zoomed 700 per cent as baldies rushed to get an ivy league look.

The new air-conditioned special, Feder feels, may be his ultimate masterpiece. It is held firmly to the scalp by two small patches of tape, one fore, one aft.

"The wind can't get up under it and blow it off," explained Kaplan, a former Air Force major. He added:

"I flight tested it myself on the deck of a ship during a violent storm, which was darn near a hurricane. Later I also tested it by diving headlong into the highest ocean breakers I could find."

IN BOTH TESTS, he said, the air-conditioned hairpiece clung to him with the loyalty of a poor relative.

"Television comedians are always making jokes about hairpieces falling off," he said. "But they don't. I've been wearing one for eight years, and mine has never fallen off."

Kaplan can put on his hairpiece and peel it off in 33 seconds. He doesn't know whether this is a record, as there have been no international contests in this field.

Surveys have shown 8 of 10 American men are affected to some extent by baldness. Approximately 250,000 males now wear hairpieces.

"THEY RANGE in age from 3 to 93," Kaplan said. "Many people have the idea that only professional entertainers wear hairpieces. Actually, I doubt if one in a thousand is a performer.

"They come from all fields. They include ministers, salesmen, business executives, students — even a steeplejack. Most of them aren't older men, either. About 76 per cent of our customers are under 35.

"One of the nice things about the hairpiece industry is that it seems recession-proof. In bad times many men feel it is easier for them to find work if they look younger. Some men who have lost their jobs use part of their unemployment benefits to invest in a hairpiece."

HAIRPIECES for men far antedate falsies for women.

"They were first worn, so far as we can find, by Egyptian Pharaohs more than 5,000 years ago," Kaplan said. "George Washington wore a hairpiece. So did our next three Presidents."

His most unusual client was a man who made his living being fired out of a circus cannon.

"Certainly he wore his hairpiece while performing his act," said Kaplan. "Why not?"

And the most unusual request his firm has had?

"Well," said Kaplan, "there was that fellow who wanted us to make him a hairpiece to wear on his chest."

About 75 persons, including Swan executives and foremen and union leaders from both the Bucyrus and Carey plants of the firm attended the meetings at the YMCA.

The meetings were conducted by Frank L. Denner of Toledo and Gilbert J. Seldin of Cleveland, commissioners of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

A fourth meeting is planned for next week when an Ohio Industrial Safety Commission spokesman is expected to be on hand to guide a discussion on safety at the plant.

Grand Jurors At Bucyrus To Hear 19 Cases

Manslaughter, Arson Charges Included on Four-Day Schedule

BUCYRUS—At least 19 cases are expected to be considered by the Crawford County Grand Jury, which starts a scheduled four-day session here Tuesday, Prosecutor John D. Sears Jr., announced here today.

Chief among the cases is that of James Bogart, 23, of Bucyrus, who was held to the grand jury on a first degree manslaughter count in the death April 19 of Norman E. Dyer, 30, Bucyrus.

Dyer died in Bucyrus Community Hospital about 48 hours after being involved in a brawl with Bogart in front of the Plaza Cafe in downtown Bucyrus. A cousin of the dead man, Orville Dyer of Bucyrus, told police that Bogart had struck Dyer's head on the sidewalk "about three times."

Dr. B. P. Mansfield, Crawford County coroner, ruled death was caused by a skull fracture. Bogart has been free on bond.

Charges of arson, filed against David Walter, 19, of near Martel and Rodney Brobeck, 18, of 365 West Columbia St., Marion, also will be investigated by the jury. The pair is charged with the burning of a vacant house on the Milton Crall farm south of Bucyrus, last November.

A request for wildlife land development assistance from Mr Willhelm also was accepted. The requests will be serviced by cooperating agencies, Luther Shafer, board chairman, reported.

Because no applications were received, the board has canceled this year's five-ton hay contest.

'Magic Barrel' Collection of 12 Stories by Bernard Malamud

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Book Critic

THE MAGIC BARREL. By Bernard Malamud. Farrar, Straus & Cudahy. $3.75.

What is so rare as a writer whose second book can compare with his fine first, and whose third with both? That rare bird, as rare as a whopping crane and a much more whimsical whooper, too, is Malamud, with two novels, "The Natural" and "The Assistant," for which he won the National Institute's Rosenthal award, and now this collection of a dozen short stories.

One of them, "The Lady of the Lake," doesn't quite measure up — the man can't be perfect all the time, and there ends my fault-finding.

The various other plots, incidents or happenings come from the rich and, I hope, inexhaustible well-spring of the corner store, the basement shop, the dingy tenement, the small neighborhood: The shoemaker wants his daughter to marry the college boy though she secretly loves her father's employe; an egg candler repents for deserting his family, and the landlord repents for ousting him; a writer exciting to read is disappointing in person; a prayer is answered, an apartment is found, a child is caught stealing candy, a beggar proves to be a leech, an old friend begs a loan, a boy pretends he likes to read, charity and love are rejected, and in the title story a rabbinical student asks a marriage broker to find him a wife.

"The Magic Barrel," "Angel Levine," about the tailor who prays for help and gets a marvel of a response in a Jewish Negro "angel," "The Prison," about the little girl who steals — these perhaps demonstrate most rewardingly the peculiar virtues of Malamud's writing. "The Prison" has a rapid-fire climax: The man slaps his wife, the mother slaps the child, the child sticks out her tongue at her would-be benefactor. But this sounds more pat than Malamud ever is. We sidle into his stories, we run most unexpectedly into a laugh, the talk is roundabout, we stop for tea with lemon, and suddenly we are caught up in the full bitterness of life or its ecstasy. Malamud has some of the angel, or in Finkle's vision of violins and candles in the sky as he runs to his beloved.

Malamud's people and his milieu you recognize at once — census taker, ex-coffee salesman, storeman barely able to make ends meet, egg candler, shoemaker, tailor and baker, and just as distinctly the jobless. But there is more and better at the core of it. These aren't so much stories; they are, rather, actual lives; you glow with the warmth of friendship, you tremble with first love, you are held fast by fear, you ache for a man's hurt exactly as in sobering reality. The pages breathe, this is utter naturalness. This isn't just reading a book; you enter Malamud's world, you are there.

Mrs. Leslie L. McGuire

In an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning in St. Mary Catholic Church, Miss Suzanne Cornely and Leslie L. McGuire were united in marriage. The Very Rev. William J. Spickerman officiated and music was by the St. Mary choir. The day marked the 25th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

The gold altar vases held arrangements of white carnations for the wedding and the family pews were marked with white satin bows combined with white carnations.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Cornely of 439 Uhler Ave., was given in marriage by her father. Her princess style gown was fashioned with a chapel train of pure silk bombazine and the yoke, accented with a Sabrina neckline, and the short sleeves were of re-embroidered lace. Holding her full circular veil of pure silk imported English illusion was an imported Chantilly lace crown with dainty pearl work. She carried a cascade bouquet of pale pink carnations and sweetheart rosebuds and her jewelry was pearl earrings, gifts from the bridegroom.

PRECEDING the bride to the altar were her sister, Mrs. Ron White, as matron of honor, and Miss Linda McGuire, a sister of the bridegroom, and Misses Jill and Janie Cornely, sisters of the bride, as bridesmaids.

They wore ballerina length gowns of dusty aqua pure silk organza over matching taffeta slips. They were designed with portrait neckline yokes and brief sleeves of shirred silk organza. Their hats were a clip-on style of matching chiffon in a leaf design with seed pearl trim and they wore sterling silver crosses and chains, gifts from the bride. Shocking pink carnations made up their cascade bouquets.

A reception followed in the Knights of Columbus Home at 1242 E. Center St. The bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and decorated with bouquets of pink and white carnations and lighted white candles. White ruffled organdy skirts, fashioned by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Endsley Sr., covered the tables.

ASSISTING AT the reception were Misses Joan Higler and Joan Devine of Cincinnati, classmates of the bride at Good Samaritan Hospital, Mrs. J. E. Frye, Mrs. R. P. Wagner, Mrs. F. M. Allen and Mrs. C. R. Coulson.

For traveling when the couple left on a wedding trip through the east and to Niagara Falls, Mrs. McGuire donned a dress of beige imported linen with which she combined orange accessories. Her corsage was a brown orchid. They will be at home after July 1 at 617 Universal Ave.

Ike Asks Quick Okay for International Nuclear Power Pact

Says Project Urgent, Will Be Beneficial

Agreement Calls for Building Six Nuclear Reactors in Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today called on Congress for swift approval of a multi-million-dollar international agreement providing for construction of six major nuclear power reactors in Europe by 1963.

Terming the project urgent, Eisenhower sent the lawmakers a special message asking for approval at this session.

The President described the program as "a first step toward mutually beneficial cooperation in the peaceful applications of atomic energy."

Under the program, the United States would sell to the six nations in the European Atomic Community about 30,000 kilograms of uranium 235. The present price for that much of the material is about 480 million dollars.

The 350-million-dollar cost of the construction of the nuclear power reactors will be borne by the Euratom nations, the White House said, with provision by the United States, through the Export-Import Bank, for a long term line of credit up to 135 million dollars.

The European countries and the United States also plan to establish a jointly financed research and development program to improve the performance of the reactors. James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said he had no information on the cost of that phase of the program.

Mayor Makes 2 Changes in Traffic Setup

Discontinuation of a "no turn" traffic signal at W. Center and Prospect streets for northbound traffic on S. Prospect St. was ordered today by Mayor Wendell L. Strong.

He said a section of the traffic light containing a directional arrow permitting northbound traffic to continue straight through the intersection only will not be operated henceforth. The directional arrow normally was operated only during peak traffic periods.

Mayor Strong also said today that all right turns from Oak St. onto W. Center St. will be prohibited beginning today. He said necessary signs have now been installed at the intersection directing southbound traffic on Oak St. to turn east only on W. Center St. The crosswalk on Center St. at the intersection has been moved to the west of Oak St. The mayor said directing the auto traffic east will eliminate danger to pedestrians.

Rockefeller Study Urges Full-Scale Reform

Overhaul of U.S. Education Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — A two-year study concludes that a full-scale reform movement is needed to raise American education standards to the needs of modern times.

A report by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Inc., called Sunday night for immediate and far-reaching changes in the nation's educational system—not just more money.

The report echoed oft-repeated statements that American schools are overcrowded, understaffed and ill-equipped. It said the basic problem is one of providing more money but that other things must be done too.

The report suggested these steps:

1. Testing and guidance procedures must be strengthened to push along more talented students who may be held back by average or slow groups.

2. Some educational problems "gravely affecting the national interest" may require a helping hand from the federal government.

3. National leaders must grasp the scope of the job that lies ahead.

"Perhaps the greatest problem facing American education is the widely held view that all we require are a few more teachers, a few more buildings, a little more money," said the report.

The crisis in science education, the report said, "is not an invention of the newspapers, or scientists or the Pentagon. It is a real crisis."

It has all been brought about, the group said, by man's swift plunge into a new technological era that is bringing changes "so startling as to test to the utmost our adaptive capacities, our stabiliy and our wisdom."

160 Attend 5th Annual Picnic Of Marion Star

The Marion Star's fifth annual picnic for employes and their families, held Sunday afternoon at Holiday Hill, was attended by 160 persons.

A softball game among the men in the afternoon was followed by games and contest events for everyone. Captains in the game, William Jessie for the winners and Gene Shuster for the losers, were presented prizes. Winning egg toss and bean bag throwing events were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilbert. Prizes in sack races went to Evelyn Sellers and William Collins. A penny scramble also was held for the children.

Following dinner at 5 o'clock, a short program was presented with Ward Scott as master of ceremonies. Community singing was led by Mr. Scott with Robert Faulkner at the piano. The program also included a song by a quartet composed of Smith Witter, Mr. Collins, W. E. Law and David B. Metzger; pantomime of "For Me and My Gal" by a group of the women, and a song and dance act by Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Scott.

General chairman for the picnic was William Byrd and on the general committee with him were Miss Gertrude Lawler, Robert Beall and Miss Esther Williams. Other chairmen were Noel Price entertainment; Mrs. Burdette Jones, food, and Bernard Lyon, transportation.

tors Clifford P. Case (R-NJ), John S. Cooper (R-Ky), Irving Ives (R-NY), Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) and Edward J. Thye (R-Minn).

When the House passed a defense reorganization bill that was not fully satisfactory to the President, Republicans there wrote a record in support of Eisenhower's losing proposals. But Senate Republicans appear unlikely to muster even a majority of their members in support of similar amendments.

Knowland and Bridges led the successful Senate assault on proposed authority for Eisenhower to provide foreign aid for Iron Curtain countries. They won this fight after Knowland said Eisenhower favored the authority, but not under the foreign aid bill.

Commercial Steel Workmen Making Furnace Repairs

Workmen at the Commercial Steel and Casting Co. continued efforts today to remove a 12 to 15-ton mass of metal and slag which solidified after falling through the bottom of a furnace Friday night.

A company spokesman said considerable damage was done to the furnace and that there was some damage to associated electrical and mechanical equipment.

How long casting operations will be shut down and a more definite estimate of damage will not be determined until the metal is removed, the spokesman said.

A large percentage of persons normally employed in casting work are engaged in clearing operations and repair work. No one was injured when the molten mass plunged through the furnace. The cleaning and pattern departments at the plant will be working as usual, the company said.

Auxiliary Patrolman Cited For Part in Area Gun Battle

COLUMBUS O. (AP) — A Crestline area auxiliary state patrolman Sunday was awarded the Earl Ulmer Meritorious Service Award for standing his ground and firing a rifle at Manford E. Draper in a gun battle March 30, 1957.

Capt. Roy Scott, 33, of near Crestline was cited for his part in the gun battle in which Draper and Patrolman Robert E. Karzmizki were killed and Patrolman Murray C. Youtz was seriously wounded. The award was named for an auxiliary patrolman killed in the line of duty in 1953.

With his automobile, Draper had run down three persons in an alley in Marion, killing two of them. He then stole a car and wrecked it at a roadblock in Galion. The gunfight took place when patrolmen approached Draper as he lay beside the wrecked car.

The award was presented at the auxiliary's 13th state conference here. At the close of the meeting the auxiliary was told that if an enemy ever sends nuclear death winging toward Ohio's nine key target areas, it will be up to the men of the highway patrol's auxiliary to guide thousands of citizens to safety.

Cpl. Duane R. Kinsey of general headquarters here told the auxiliary patrolmen they will be responsible for handling evacuation traffic and setting up shelter areas and control points.

The target areas are considered by civil defense officials to be Youngstown, Toledo, Akron, Steubenville, Dayton, Canton, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Columbus.

Col. Fred Moritz, patrol superintendent, added: "I would like to emphasize . . . that we are turning to you men in the auxiliary to carry out and, for all practical purposes, operate the program should it ever become necessary to put it into action."

Moritz also praised the men, all members of the American Legion in good standing, for contributing more than 170,000 free manhours this year in working with regular highway patrolmen.

Gov. C. William O'Neill added his thanks and praise for the work of the 5,000-man volunteer organization. Almost 1,000 of the auxiliary patrolmen—many of whom have been with the organization since its start in 1942—are now in the inactive reserve, but 10 training schools have been set up in an attempt to bring active strength up to 5,000 men, Moritz explained.

U.S. Has Documents Refuting Ernst Report on Galindez Case

NEW YORK (AP)—The Justice Department has documents in the handwriting of Gerald Lester Murphy, an American flier, connecting him with the disappearance of Dr. Jesus de Galindez, the New York Times said today.

The newspaper said in a Washington dispatch that State Department consular officials found the documents in a steel file in Murphy's apartment in Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic.

The Times said the documents were found after Murphy's own disappearance Dec. 3, 1956.

Galindez, a Columbia University lecturer and a critic of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo, disappeared in New York City March 12, 1956. Charges have been made that he was kidnaped, and later flown to the Dominican Republic by Murphy.

Murphy vanished in Ciudad Trujillo. Later, the Dominican government announced that he had been murdered by a Dominican pilot, who then committed suicide.

Morris L. Ernst, a New York lawyer, was engaged by the Trujillo government to investigate Galindez's disappearance.

Ernst and a colleague issued a report that rejected the charge that Murphy had flown Galindez to the Dominican Republic. In effect, the report cleared Trujillo of any part in Galindez's disappearance.

The Times said the documents offer apparent contradictions of theories advanced by Ernst.

Sunday night Ernst stood by his report.

Morrow Area Accidents Hurt Five Persons

3 Wrecks Reported By Patrolmen; Four Hurt in One Crash

Five persons sustained injuries in two of the three weekend accidents investigated in Morrow County by state patrolmen of the Marion post.

The injury toll hit four in a bumper to bumper jostle involving three cars on Rt. 42 six and one-half miles north of Mount Gilead at 10:25 a.m. Saturday.

All Southbound

Patrolmen said cars involved were driven by Wayne G. Stewart, 34, of Akron, Dorothy V. Poland 40, of Urbana and Robert D. Paddock, 26, of Berea, all southbound.

According to the report, the Stewart vehicle was slowed for traffic in front of it, when struck by the Poland car, second in line. The Paddock auto, third in line, then hit the Poland vehicle and sent it into the Stewart car again, officers said.

Injured were Dorothy Poland, bruises of the knee, elbow, leg and neck, a passenger, Kathleen Poland, 12, also of Urbana, concussion; Paddock, bruised chest and contusions, and Marlene Stewart of Akron, a passenger in the Stewart auto, contusions of the side and face.

The four were taken to Morrow County Hospital in a Craven ambulance from Mount Gilead.

Cited To Appear

Dorothy Poland and Paddock were charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance and cited to appear before Mayor Ralph Porterfield of Mount Gilead. The Stewart car was considerably damaged while the other two were badly damaged, patrolmen said.

The intersection of Rt. 61 and Morrow County Rd. 24, three and one-half miles south of Mount Gilead was the scene of the second injury crash Sunday at 2:15 p.m., patrolmen said.

An eastbound auto driven by Mrs. Lila M. James, 76, of Cardington, traveling on the county road, pulled onto the highway into the path of a southbound vehicle driven by Glen Rice, 24, of Newark, and the two vehicles collided, patrolmen said.

Collision impact sent both autos into the west ditch and through a fence owned by William Burns of near Mount Gilead. Both cars were badly damaged, according to the report.

Mrs. James was taken to Morrow County Hospital in a Craven ambulance for treatment of multiple body bruises. She was in fair condition this morning. She was cited to appear before Mayor Porterfield at a later date, charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Fined $15, Costs

A Cardington driver was fined $15 and costs by Morrow Judge Paul R. Richeson Saturday after his auto was involved in a mishap on Rt. 61, eight miles south of Mount Gilead at 5 p.m.

Investigating officers said the southbound auto driven by Donald High, 18, of Cardington, attempted a left turn and crossed the path of a northbound auto driven by Thomas A. Gardner, 24, of Marengo, and the two collided.

High was charged with an improper turn. Patrolmen said both vehicles were badly damaged.

No Comedians in Israel

JERUSALEM

"We don't have any comedy here because we haven't any comedians," said Harry Zinder, director of Kol Israel Radio (Israel Broadcasting.) "Most of the great comedians of the world are Jewish but none of them is here."

JOHN CROSBY

It is very odd. The great comics — not only our own but those of most countries —are Jews, but their ability to make people laugh seems to evaporate in the Jewish national homeland.

There are a good many theories as to why this should be so. For one thing, this is a young country, celebrating its 10th anniversary right now, and it has a population of only two million people.

Our own nation with 170 million people is suffering a severe shortage of comedians, so you can hardly expect a small young country to produce a bumper crop.

ANOTHER REASON lies deeper. Jewish humor is essentially self-critical, almost self-annihilating. The Jews resorted to humor, most of it at their own expense, when life became insupportable in the ghetto.

"But there are no ghettoes here," Mr. Zinder, who hails from Kenosha, Wis., pointed out. "The old reasons for humor have disappeared here. That makes it difficult for the comedian. We have tried very hard not only to find comedians but comedy writers, but there is none."

Yiddish, which is a corruption of middle high German, always has been a wonderful language for humor, but Yiddish comedy doesn't go over well in this polyglot nation whose 70-nationality populace speaks heaven knows how many tongues and dialects.

The "Sabra" (which is what they call the native-born here) are beginning to produce their own brand of humor which is brash, breezy and pretty sexy but it doesn't stick to the ribs very well. The Army is beginning to produce a batch of humorists as Armies all over the world seem to do.

HOWEVER YOU look at it, Mr. Zinder's problems are pretty special in this youngest of the world's nations.

The official language is Hebrew, the language of Moses' laws and Solomon's love songs, which first had to be refurbished and modernized for the bus drivers and grocery clerks.

Radio is very much a tool to help teach it and Kol Israel broadcasts now in 12 languages. The 12: Hebrew, French, English, Yiddish, Ladino (a sort of Spanish Yiddish), Hungarian, Romanian, Polish, Persian, Spanish, Yemenite and Mograbian (a dialect of the Arabic spoken by the Berbers).

"News programs are one way to help the new guys make a transition from their own language to Hebrew," Mr. Zinder explained. "First we do the news in their own language. Then we repeat it at dictation speed in basic Hebrew. Actually there is no such thing as basic Hebrew but we try to keep it simple."

The Israeli radio is largely staffed by people who got their training as civil servants for the BBC when Palestine was under British protection. At night, many of them were active in the illicit underground radio.

When, I asked, did you sleep? "During the daytime," I was told.

ONE OF THE MOST popular programs at the moment—and one of the most challenging and stimulating radio programs anywhere—is one called "Three Men on a Boat." The three men are actually four men—two journalists, one writer and a radio broadcaster who are asked to ad lib jokes on every subject you can think of, including some pretty solemn ones like politics, nuclear energy or Sputniks.

Much of the ad libbing is far more elaborate than jokes. One of the panel members, a composer, has been asked to ad lib a concerto on the spot (he is given a little time to do this) while another one, a poet, makes up lyrics to fit it.

Among the literary improvisations, the group is asked to come up with a visit to the zoo as done in, say, the style of William Fulkner. They do it, too.

The show is performed in front of an audience of students who do not hesitate to boo resoundingly when they don't like it but who, on the other hand, are enormously appreciative when they do like it.

The whole show goes on for two and a half hours, is taken down on tape and later broken up into two separate radio programs. The panel will do it only once a month, though. It's too tough on the panel's nerves to do it oftener.

2 Toledoans Held in Robbery, Shooting of Antioch Student

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Two Toledo men were arrested Sunday night in connection with the robbery and shooting of an Antioch College student.

Shot twice in the head during a robbery, Eugene Greathouse, 25, was reported in critical condition today at Toledo Memorial Hospital.

Charged with armed robbery were Brady Banks, 22, and Paul Davis, 28.

Greathouse and a companion, Arthur Clink, 22, of Roseville, Mich. drove from Detroit to Toledo Saturday night in Greathouse's car, police said. They picked up two men at the bus station and went for a ride.

Clink, who identified Banks and Davis today, said the pair pulled a gun and forced them out of the car about 20 miles southwest of here. They forced their victims to strip, robbed Greathouse of $64 and then shot him, Clink said.

The robbers drove off. Clink walked to a nearby farmhouse and summoned police.

Greathouse has been working in Detroit as part of a work-study program of Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Man Shoots and Kills Guest, Wounds His Wife in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—While Jessie Ben Ziegler's wife sagged critically wounded into a policeman's arms Sunday, Ziegler shot and killed a house guest.

The 63-year-old Ziegler is being held in city prison without charge today for investigation of homicide. Police say he has admitted firing the shots that took the life of Jessie Collins, 38, and sent Ziegler's wife, Bernice, 38, to Mercy Hospital in critical condition.

Minutes before the shots were fired, police had searched Ziegler's house in a fruitless effort to find the gun that fired the shots.

Police said Mrs. Ziegler called them to the house and told them her husband had loaded a revolver after a family quarrel.

When police could not find the gun, they started to leave. Patrolman George Vest said Mrs. Ziegler asked to leave with the officers and as she turned away from Vest, she was shot.

She fell into Vest's arms, the patrolman said. Police said that before they could stop him, Ziegler raced to a second floor bedroom and shot the sleeping Collins.

Police said Ziegler told them he shot his wife because she failed to prepare his noon meal Saturday. Ziegler said he shot Collins because the man had failed to leave his home.

Science Discovers New Way To Remove Warts Before They Spread
New Compound Works Safely, Without Cutting or Burning

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Medical science has linked warts with a contagious virus that may spread them to all parts of the body. Doctors say picking at warts increases the danger of spreading.

Now, science has discovered a new substance that removes these growths without danger of cutting, burning or infection. This substance, in easy-to-use liquid form, dries up warts so they fall off, leaving only normal, healthy skin.

Reports show this liquid can be safely used at home, even for children. There is no pain, no ugly scarring.

In cases observed by a leading New York skin clinic, this liquid proved its ability to penetrate the wart, destroy its cells, and cause the wart to fall apart and disappear.

The name of this new liquid is Compound W®. It is now available for the first time without prescription at drug counters everywhere for just 98¢. Compound W is guaranteed to remove warts or money refunded.

Fire Hydrants To Be Flushed

Operation May Color Water Temporarily

Fire hydrants in the business district will be flushed Wednesday morning as part of a survey of city fire fighting facilities, L. Otis Porter, manager of the Marion Water Co., reported this morning.

The flushing may cause water in some sections of the city to develop a milky appearance temporarily but this condition will clear up in about one hour, Mr. Porter said.

Water company crews already have flushed some of the hydrants that will be inspected in the survey Wednesday in order to keep the discoloration of the water to a minimum, he said.

The inspection of the hydrants will be made by a three-man team from the National Board of Fire Underwriters in town to survey all fire fighting facilities and prepare a report on their findings.

Mr. Porter said normally the flushing of the hydrants is done at night but in this instance it must be done in the daytime.

Youth Critically Hurt In 'Duel' Near Hamilton

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Two youths got into a friendly shooting duel Sunday that ended with James Lee Johnson, 19, of Hamilton, shot in the head and wounded critically.

That's the story police pieced together after talking with Jimmie Darrel Terry, 17, of Hamilton, who officers said told them, "We were just pranking around."

Investigators said Terry gave this account:

He, armed with a .22 caliber pistol, and Johnson, with a .22 rifle, were headed through a woods with two friends for some target practice.

Johnson said, "I'm going to shoot you," and started firing. All four hid behind trees and Terry returned the fire. Johnson was hit.

Aides at Mercy Hospital said it's doubtful if Johnson will live.

No charge was filed immediately.

What's COOKIN'

MERLE WISE

"MIXIN' 'EM UP."

Kids are fun! Watch them and you'll learn something . . . here's one we caught lately.

"Johnny, eat your spinach. It'll put firm, white teeth in your mouth."

"It will? Then feed it to grandpa!"

Americans are eating more vegetables. We eat 50% more lettuce than in 1939. Handling and shipping methods give us a better choice throughout the year. Smart meal planners are "mixing up" their own special salad recipes.

We all have our favorites . . . mine is cabbage salad with lots of pineapple, marshmallows, bananas, and a sweetened salad dressing. I remember a 12-year old who shuddered at the thought of combining bananas with cabbage. We were all grinning as we "corner-eyed" him sneaking a large second helping.

Fresh fruits and vegetables arrive daily at our store. There's a tremendous variety of zesty salad dressings available. Olives and pickles are a must in tossed salads. Add some cheese . . . it's dairy month.

By the way, hats off to all the young people who graduated from high school or college this year! We need young people who increase their knowledge . . . and help their fellow man. Each new graduating class is a step of progress!

Are you making plans for the "Fourth?" Next week's story is "What's Freedom?"

World Is Living on Borrowed Time, Adventists Are Warned

CLEVELAND (AP)—"If there ever was a people who lived on borrowed time, we are that people," Dr. Francis D. Nichol of Washington today told Seventh - Day Adventists here for the denomination's 48th quadrennial world conference.

Nichol, editor of the Review and Herald, the denomination's official paper, told delegates at a morning devotional study that "by the very logic of our interpretation of scripture, we are right now borrowing time from eternity."

He spoke on the nearness of the end of the world and reviewed some of the predictions which he said were publicly branded as nonsense until a few decades ago.

"Take for example our startling prediction of great wars ahead," the editor continued. "For long years that prediction seemed like an idle tale. Two World Wars have alerted the public thinking on that point and in this atomic age we hear frightened scientists and many others beginning to use a phrase that formerly appeared to be the monopoly of Adventists preachers - the end of the world."

Nichol said the most important proof to him that "the day of the Lord is near is that for the first time in history, the world faces not only the possibility, but the absolute certainty that unless human folly is soon checked mankind will blot itself from the face of the earth."

34 Children Start First YMCA Day Camping Program

Thirty-four youngsters enrolled in the first session of YMCA day camp boarded the "Y" bus this morning with Mount Gilead State Park as their destination.

Today's opening program marked the first of four sessions to be held for children between the ages of 7 and 12. The current program will run through July 3.

Miss Nell Bailey and Beryl Johnson, YMCA staff members in charge of the program, announced today that several registrations still are open for the other three sessions.

Dates for the other periods, all with quotas of 45 boys and girls, are: July 7 to July 18, July 21 to Aug. 1 and Aug. 3 to Aug. 15.

Day camp activities will include an educational trip each week, swimming instruction at Mount Gilead pool, hiking in the state park there, nature lore, camp craft, a parents' night program, outdoor cooking, devotions and group games.

Staff members in addition to Mr. Johnson and Miss Bailey are Dwight Haas, field director; Richard Penry, Clyde Thomas and Miss Dianne Copeland, counselors; Miss Phoebe Dowler, Bruce Kohler and Ned Porter, junior counselors.

Registrations still may be made for the second through fourth sessions. Cost for "Y" members is $17 and for non members, $20.

NYC Main Line Tied Up By 41-Car Derailment

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Forty-one cars of a New York Central freight train were derailed 20 miles west of here today. None of the six crewmen was injured.

The 98-car train was eastbound from Chicago to Toledo. About 2,000 yards of mainline tracks were ripped up by the derailment near Holland in Lucas County. Some 33 cars were demolished.

Railroad spokesmen said the tracks would be out of service for between 18 and 24 hours. All New York Central trains are being routed from Elkhart, Ind., to Adrian, Mich., and then to Toledo. Re-routing will delay trains about 1½ hours.

Cause of the accident has not been determined.

Forecaster Sees Chance for Rain

The mercury rose to a high of 77 Sunday, then fell to an overnight low of 53. It hit 80 Saturday and stood at 47 during the night. Saturday's 80, by the way, marked the first time since June 12 that the temperature climbed out of the 70's.

The weekend's fine weather did not, however, signal the end of the long stretch of cool, damp circumstances, apparently. For this morning's weather forecast calls for the possibility of showers tonight and Tuesday.

At noon today the mercury read 70, with a high of 73 in prospect for the day. A low of 54 may be recorded for tonight, with 75 the peak reading Tuesday.

Senate Group Lines Up Inquiries

Probers Planning Hot Summer for Racketeers

By VICTOR RIESEL

For most of the past fortnight, Senate crime buster Bob Kennedy has been flying in and out of Chicago and western New York cities where he's operated with the skillful secrecy of an OSS agent behind enemy lines. For Bob Kennedy these swift hedgehops were trips behind the lines of an enemy he and Sen. John McClellan first tackled —the Mafia network which was corrupting one government agency when the Senate counter-assault was first launched late in 1955.

VICTOR RIESEL

Typical of Kennedy's operation these past weeks was his visit to the Buffalo-Niagara area, in which there is a powerful Mafia outpost. He arrived with a colleague Thursday night. He sped to the Hotel Statler. No one knew whom he saw or talked to or what records he examined. Friday night, out he flew, saying only that he had some files.

All through the weekend, Buffalo labor leaders telephoned each other trying to track Kennedy's activities. They figured he had looked into at least one local of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union. But they had no evidence of anything.

Kennedy is working this probe quietly and personally because this is the most powerful combine he has yet hit and is the final exposure before he takes a leave of absence from the Senate Select Committee to help direct his brother John's re-election campaign in Massachusetts.

THERE'S A QUIXOTIC twist to this showdown. In a sense Kennedy is back to what first surprised him and Sen. McClellan when they turned to their new probe almost three years ago.

At that time they had heard of big time bribery in the military procurement agencies. Wherever they turned, they ran into the Mafia. They found that millions of dollars had passed hands so racket manufacturers and truckers could get government contracts for uniforms.

One of the names was the late Marco Reginelli, one of the top Philadelphia - New Jersey hoods. From him and others the trail always led to Albert Anastasia, Johnny Dio and a string of others in the New York - New Jersey-Pennsylvania mob with direct ties to the men who were to become delegates to the Mafia crime convention on Nov. 14, 1957.

Though that McClellan-Kennedy probe, then operating under the aegis of the Government Operations Committee, never did get the dramatic coverage of the Select Committee, it got results.

THE PENTAGON, shook up its Quartermasters Division. Two generals were moved in to do that job. Secretary of Labor James Mitchell talked to the military and they set up a "Citizens Advisory Committee" for the generals to consult on just who would be permitted to bid on hundreds of millions of dollars in future contracts.

This committee has been functioning for some six or eight months. On it are the International Ladies Garment Workers Union leader, David Dubinsky, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union chief, Jack Potofsky, and officials of the legitimate garment manufacturers association.

It was from the original handful of men in the Anastasia group that Kennedy found lines leading out into the Teamsters and then some other unions he had exposed.

These leads ran through trade associations which used mobsters to terrorize unions and vice versa.

IN SOME instances both the union and the so-called business group were controlled by the same mobs. There can be no estimate on the business they control because it could run up towards the billion dollar figure and who would believe it if you told them.

Just so you have some measure, there is the report that only part of the military uniform contracts in the early 1950's ran up to 180 million dollars — and only 5 per cent went to legitimate garment manufacturers.

The Apalachin crime convention disclosed that there are at least another dozen industries in which the boys have made millions out of their labor - management efforts. But this is peanuts. When the McClellan Committee on May 13 revealed that they had subpoenaed more than 100 witnesses, they said that the June 30 hearings "would delve only into the activities of hoodlums alleged to be using business and labor organizations as fronts for narcotics traffic, gambling and other illegal enterprises."

It will be a hot summer.

The books were chosen from the illustrated Junior Classics and the Illustrated Junior Library, Mrs. Howard Havron, head librarian, reported.

Hit by Ball, Girl Dies

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Doctors said a brain injury caused the death of Jane Ann Updegrove, 11, of Van Wert, who succumbed in St. Rita's Hospital here Sunday after being hit on the head with a baseball. She was walking near her home past a field where some youths were playing baseball when the accident occurred Friday.

RICHWOOD — The Richwood Lions Club celebrated its 20th anniversary Thursday night at the grade school building with a banquet served by the Church of Christ to 200 Lions, wives and guests. The invocation was given by Frank McDaniel. Dinner music was furnished by Verne Zuspan. Also on the program were the Rich Chords, a quartet consisting of Don Ransome, Nick Wall, Don Wood and Joe Mowery.

Toastmaster Charles Gill introduced the district officers and past presidents.

Forrest Steinman of Bluffton presented the 10, 15 and 20 year chevrons and also inducted two new members.

Harold Walter of Akron presented K. D. Kyle the distinguished service plaque for his 20 years perfect attendance, and two 100 per cent attendance pins for 1957-58.

Mrs. Williams Starts Friday

Galion Woman To Make Journey Around World

GALION — Having been active in missionary work locally and in the district for a number of years and having an aunt who lived with her family after retirement from 35 years of missionary work in Japan, Mrs. D. O. Williams of Galion feels these missionary interests have been the inspiration for her trip around the world.

She is leaving Galion Friday, June 28, for the trip which is to be made by air.

"I think I'll be most interested in the countries of India and Japan, but I know that Africa and the Holy Land will be highlights, too," Mrs. Williams said. She explained that the missionary interests of her church and family have been centered in these countries.

—:—

"IT WILL BE the time of the monsoons when we get to India, Thailand and other countries of that part of the world, so I am preparing for rain in torrents," Mrs. Williams said as she checked her raincoat among the garments she is packing. Anticipation of this aspect of her trip doesn't seem to "dampen" her interest but heightens it. She is traveling light, she says, principally because of the hot climate she will face, but also because of the requirements for air travel.

"Our church (Methodist) supports the Rev. Benjamin John, an Indian, who is a district superintendent in the Agra district in India; and I have made plans to meet him and talk with him," Mrs. Williams explained as one of her interests in the visit to India. The tour director has asked that the Rev. Mr. John join the group in India.

The tour of which Mrs. Williams will be a part is known as the Cooperative Education Tour, conducted by Whitewater State College of Whitewater, Wis. The tour conductor is Prof. Clay H. Daggett of the college. He will be making his seventh international tour.

Mrs. Williams, who has an A.B. degree from Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., could receive credit for two college hours toward a master's degree by taking this trip, but she prefers to make it for pleasure.

The 48 people that will be making the tour with the Galion woman will not all be strangers to her. Mrs. Helen Lamb, forerly Helen French of Galion whose mother was matron of the Crawford County Children's Home here, and Mrs. Helen LePontois, stepdaughter of Mrs. Williams, both of Rocky River, will be in the party.

MRS. WILLIAMS will go to Cleveland next Friday, and take a plane for New York to join the tour. The first stop will be made in Copenhagan, the only stop in Europe.

The itinerary from then on will be Athens, Greece; Istanbul, Turkey; Damascus, Syria; the Holy Land and its points of interest in Bible history, with Jersualem to be reached by July 10. After that there will be Cairo and Luxor in Egypt and the Kenya colony, Africa.

Other fascinating places she will visit in India will be the Agra district, Jaipur, and New Delhi, and the famous Taj Mahal, with Bangkok in Thailand, Singapore, and Hong Kong and the Philippines to come before Tokyo and other places in Japan.

The homeward trip will include a stop in the Hawaiian islands before reaching San Francisco by Aug. 20. Mrs. Williams plans a short stay with relatives there before returning to Galion.

Mrs. Williams has resigned as secretary at First Methodist Church, here, prior to making the trip. She has held a district office in the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church for the last six years.

Minoso Leads Indians to Sweep Against Senators

Second Home Run of Day Brings Grant 1-0 Decision

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some clubs hate'em, but the Cleveland Indians just love those doubleheaders. They've won both ends of the last three twin bills they've played.

They continued the string Sunday by shading the Washington Senators 4-3 and 1-0. Minnie Minoso's second home run of the day was enough for Jim (Mudcat) Grant in the nightcap as he hurled a six-hitter for his first shutout in the major leagues. Mudcat earned his sixth victory in 10 decisions. Hal Griggs, who allowed the Tribe only four hits, was the loser.

New Players Shine

The Indians won the first contest with a three-run outburst in the fifth inning to overcome a 2-1 deficit. Two former Kansas City A's players provided the key blows.

Vic Power lined a two-run single and Woody Held drove in the deciding run with a bases-loaded sacrifice fly to center field. Minoso got the first run with a mighty home run that struck the facing along the upper left field stands.

The two home runs give Minoso 11 for the season and 36 runs batted in, tops in RBI's on the Cleveland club and one ahead of Rocky Colavito.

Narleski Wins Ninth

Ray Narleski won the opener with some smooth relief pitching from his pal, Don Mossi. The lanky left - hander retired four straight batters after getting his summons from the bullpen with two on and two out in the eighth. He protected the one-run lead and struck out the side in the final frame.

It was Narleski's ninth victory against five setbacks. Only Bob Turley of New York (10-3) has won more games in the league this season.

Cleveland is host to the Boston Red Sox at the stadium Tuesday night and Gary Bell (2-1) is slated to be on the mound for the Indians.

Buffalo Splits Pair With Jets

By The Associated Press

The weakhhave arisen and the strong-arm boys of the International League today were casting anxious glances rearward.

Whether the second division incumbents like Richmond, Miami and Buffalo can continue making threatening gestures remains to be seen.

But the Virginians now have a six-game winning streak going for them, having polished off Rochester twice Sunday, 9-4 and 2-1.

Miami, which had its four-game winning streak snapped by Montreal in the first game of a doubleheader, 3-1, bounced right back in the nightcap for a 3-1 triumph.

And Buffalo, way down in the depths of the league—15½ games behind first - place Toronto—managed an even break with the Columbus Jets, winning the first game, 3-1, and putting up a struggle before dropping a 2-1 decision in the nightcap.

The scheduled Toronto-Havana doubleheader was rained out.

Kroll Takes Top Spot in Flint Event

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — It has been two years since Ted Kroll reaped the biggest payoff in the history of golf but the compact little veteran from Sarasota, Fla., is back knocking on the victory door again.

He carried a two-stroke lead into today's final round of the $52,000 Flint Open.

Tommy Bolt, the fellow the 39-year-old Kroll unseated in Sunday's third round, said he was glad to be out of the lead for the first time in six competitive rounds. "Let him find out how it feels up there in that No. 1 spot," said Bolt.

Consistency paid off for Kroll, whose $72,000-plus earnings two years ago stand as the highest money total for one golfer in a single year.

Kroll has missed hitting only four greens in regulation since the 72-hole affair began att he Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club in nearby Grand Blanc. He has been over par on just two out of 52 holes.

"I'm hitting the ball better than I have in two years," he said. "I'd like to hit this well the rest of my life and I'd be happy."

Kroll seized the lead from Bolt with a 3-under-par 9 while the U. S. Open champion was recording his second par.

Kroll's 4-hole total was 211, two strokes better than Bolt and Jack Fleck, Rochester, Mich. Fleck fired a 9 Sunday.

Radnor Grabs Pair of Wins

RADNOR — Radnor's independent baseball team swept to a pair of victories in weekend action here. Saturday night, the local team clipped Wood's Plumbers of Columbus 9-6 in a Mark Stephens Memorial League game and Sunday afternoon belted Upper Arlington 15-2 in a Sunday Amateur League tilt.

Charley Grey and Bill Stewart knocked in a pair of runs each in the first inning Saturday night to shove their mates ahead. The Plumbers came back with three runs in the third on three walks and a base hit and knotted the count at 4-4 in the fifth on a home run by Jack Barnett.

Roger McCombs smacked a homer for Radnor in the bottom of the fifth and a four-run burst in the sixth clinched the verdict. Three walks, an error and a McCombs single accounted for the winning spurt.

Butch Seitz of Ohio State was the losing hurler while Dave Masters got the win. Lowell Taylor, McCombs and Grey all had three hits for the winners.

The local team scored three in the first, three in the fourth, one in the fifth, three in the seventh and five in the eighth in the Sunday rout. George Steele, the winning pitcher, also led the attack, banging out five hits including a pair of doubles. Don Maxwell had three hits, one a double.

Action this week for the local diamond will see the high school team playing Green Camp Tuesday at 8 p.m. with the IOOF nine meeting Columbus AC Saturday night. Next Sunday the local nine visits Galena.

National City, Isaly Capture Baseball Wins

In a brace of American League baseball games played Saturday night on Scott Field, National City Bank defeated the Marion County Bank, 7-2, and Isaly downed Mac's, 10-6.

National City, with Cudd on the rubber, scored seven runs on seven hits and made three errors. The Countians got two runs on two safeties and made four bobbles. Brammer was nicked for the loss.

National City scored one run in the first inning, added three in the fourth and three in the sixth. Marion County managed single runs in both the third and sixth frames.

Cudd, en route to victory, registered five strikeouts and gave up three bases on balls. Brammer fanned three City stickmen and struck out six.

Big man at the plate for the victors was Carnell, who poled a home run and a double. Clemons hammered a two-base-hit for the County Bankers.

Isaly scored 10 runs on 10 hits and made but one error in triumphing over Mac's Trading Post, 10-6. The latter got six runs on five safeties and were charged with four errors.

The winners scored two runs in the initial frame, added five in the second and three in the third. Mac's, after tying things up in the first, added three more runs in the third but were effectively shackled by the Isaly defense thereafter.

Culp took the mound to register the win for Isaly, getting 12 Macmen to strike out and allowing eight to stroll along the way.

A trio of hurlers paraded to the hill for the Traders. Cris was the initial pitcher. He gave way to Carpenter in the second, with Gruber coming on in the third to finish the game. Crist was tagged with the loss.

Downing, Wyle and Steveson all doubled for Isaly's. Eby and Schroll both had a pair of two-baggers for the victors. Carpenter doubled for Mac's. Little, Macmen first sacker, was credited with a triple. Steveson batted 1.000 per cent for the game, getting two doubles and two singles in four trips.

Cornell Registers 4th Rowing Crown

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — The Cornell dynasty goes on in rowing.

Opposition coaches thought the Big Red were dead in 1958. Now, after Cornell's sweep of the 56th Intercollegiate Rowing Assn. championships on Onondaga Lake last Saturday, they were wondering how the men from Cayuga's waters are going to be stopped in 1959.

Cornell Coach Stork Sanford, with a record-tying four straight IRA varsity titles to his credit, will have a horde of eager, able and experienced galleymen back next spring.

The Big Red varsity, which hadn't won a meet all spring, grabbed the lead from fast-starting but quick-fading Massachusetts Institute of Technology shortly after the mile mark of the three mile race was passed. Then the Cornellians kept moving ahead with every stroke.

Washington center fielder Albie Pearson led the Texas League in hitting in 1956 with a .371 average. He starred for Oklahoma City.

Crowe Leads Attack

Reds Held to Split By Chicago Team

CINCINNATI (AP) — George Crowe, the durable Hoosier, has so effectively compensated for loss of first baseman Ted Kluszewski that the Cincinnati Redlegs scarcely miss him.

Take one of his best recent performances - Sunday's doubleheader nightcap with Chicago's Cubs.

The Reds lost the game, 8-6, but Crowe's 3 for 4 performance including a home run accounted for four Cincinnati markers and he scored two of the runs himself.

Win Opener 6-2

Of course, he couldn't buy a hit in the first game, but he did score one of the markers. And the Reds won the game handily, 6-2.

Crowe admits to 34 years, and whatever his age, he's the batting kingpin of the Redlegs right now with a .340 average and 38 runs batted in.

When the Reds traded Big Klu last year, Crowe faced a fight for the first base job. What happened? His biggest competitor, Steve Bilko, was traded last week and the other prospect, Dee Fondy is used mainly as a pinch hitter.

Crowe's most telling hit Sunday, that homer, came in the eighth and tied up the score, 5-5.

Ernie Banks had fumbled Gus Bell's grounder and when Crowe made his big swat, the Reds had a life.

Jeffcoat Is Battered

But against reliefer Hal Jeffcoat in the ninth, the Cubs found three more runs that the Reds couldn't match. A double by Sam Taylor and Chuck Tanner's single brought in one marker and after Tony Taylor bunted safely, Alvin Dark brought both men in with a single.

A prospective Redleg run was cut off in the ninth after Frank Robinson's homer.

In the opener, the Reds simply got ahead in the third inning and hung on the rest of the way.

The big boost in the Reds' five-run third was Gus Bell's grand slam homer. The stage was set for it by walks to Crowe and Smokey Burgess and Don Hoak's double.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, whose doubleheader defeat of Pittsburgh Sunday helped the Reds climb into the National League's third place, move into Crosley Field tonight. Johnny Podres is slated to oppose Brooks Lawrence on the mound.

Nicklaus Wins Title

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, cocky young son of a Columbus, Ohio druggist, won the Trans - Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament Sunday with a 9 and 8 victory over Richard Norville of Oklahoma City.

It wasn't much of a match. Nicklaus, 18, smacked the ball 300 to 325 yards down the fairways—usually 20 to 50 yards farther than Norville — and followed up with good putts to completely outplay his opponent.

Aussie Runner Breaks Mark In Mile Event

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Herb Elliott of Australia has run another record-breaking mile race and started another controversy among track officials.

The lanky young miler was clocked in 3:57.9 in winning his specialty at the AAU championships Saturday night, shading the recognized mark of 3:58 set four years ago by his countryman, Johny Landy.

But no one seems to know for certain whether the International Amateur Athletic Federation, which must pass on all word records, recognizes mile marks recorded in tenths of seconds.

It was dealing only in fifths of seconds when Landy set his record four years ago. Landy actually ran 3:57.9, too, but it was recorded as 3:58 because of the IAAF policy.

However, Pincus Sober, chairman of the National AAU track and field committee, expressed confidence Elliott's time would be recognized as a new world record.

Just a month ago at Los Angeles Elliott broke the tape in another record mile only to get fouled up in the IAAF's red tape.

In racing to his third sub-four-minute mile in as many meets here this season, Elliott did it the hard way, coming off a slow three-lap time to run an incredible 54.1 final lap.

Pushing him all the way on the last quarter-mile was his fellow Australian, Merv Lincoln, who finished three strides back, timed in 3:58.5.

Brooklyn, N. Y. — Jose Torres, 164, Puerto Rico, knocked out Joey Salvato, 166, Yonkers, N.Y., 4.

Holds Three Records

Ohio State's Davis Awaits AAU Track Tests in Russia

By JACK STEVENSON

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Versatility marks the track career of Glenn Davis since high school days. So it comes as no surprise that today the 23-year-old Ohio State senior lays claim to three world titles.

As a senior at Barberton High School in Ohio, Davis captured the state title as a one-man track team with victories in the low hurdles, 220 and broad jump.

Sets First Record

As a sophomore at Ohio State he put his name on the world record list for the first time by running the 400 meters in 49.5 seconds at the final U.S. Olympic tryouts in Los Angeles June 29, 1956.

He went on to win the Olympic gold medal and share the Olympic record at 50.1

Next came the Big Ten meet of the year and the fleet 6-footer flashed to a 440-yard dash victory in 45.8 seconds, equaling the world record.

In the national collegiate championships at Berkeley, Davis bettered the record with 45.7, a time virtually certain to be recognized since all conditions for an international standard were met.

Then last Friday night at the National AAU meet, Davis took charge of the 440-yard hurdles to win in 49.9 seconds and better the 50.7 world record by G. C. Potgieter of South Africa and also the 50.5 by Josh Culbreath of the Philadelphia Pioneer Club, which awaits recognition.

Will Visit Russia

Next for Davis comes the AAU trip to Russia where he may run the quarter both on the flat and over the hurdles.

After that Davis plans to finish his studies at Ohio State and begin selling automobiles for a living. But he'll stay in shape, aiming at another gold medal in the 1960 Olympics.

"That race last Friday was only the second 440-yard hurdles that I'd run competitively," he said. "And I don't exactly remember where the first one was. I think it was at Quantico."

Yesterday's STARS

Batting — Hector Lopez, Athletics, saved game with great catch on Jackie Jensen's drive in eighth inning and broke tie with run-scoring single in same inning for Kansas City's 2-1 victory over Boston.

Pitching — Sal Maglie, Cardinals, 41-year-old Yankee castoff beat National League leaders at Milwaukee 2-1 in first start for St. Louis.

Yankees Blast Detroit's Hex, Nail 15-0 Win

By The Associated Press

Just when the Detroit pitching staff was to be knighted for outstanding service to the American League race, the Yankees woke up.

New York had scored only one run in 37 innings against baffling Tiger pitching and lost seven straight to Detroit. Then the Yanks cut loose Sunday with a 16-hit blast in a 15-0 rout.

Don Larsen had a two-hitter for his third shutout and sixth victory. After Billy Martin singled in the second, Larsen retired 16 Tiger batters in succession before Gail Harris singled in the seventh.

Athletics Win 2-1

The second-place Kansas City Athletics topped Boston again 2-1, with the help of a game-saving catch by Hector Lopez on a drive by Jackie Jensen. Jack Urban outpitched Tom Brewer in a tight battle.

Baltimore climbed out of the cellar when Billy O'Dell turned in a six-hit shutout of Chicago 2-0, his eighth victory.

Rap Three Pitchers

The Yanks knocked out Billy Hoeft in the first inning when they scored six and went on another six-run binge in the eighth against Herb Moford and Vito Valentinetti. Gil McDougald had two doubles and a pair of singles, Tony Kubek three singles and Elston Howard a two-run homer and a double.

At Kansas City, Lopez dashed into right center to snare Jensen's drive in the eighth with Pete Runnels on third base and the score tied. Lopez's single scored the winning run in the last of the eighth, after Preston Ward and Bob Cerv singled.

Archbishop Honored

CLEVELAND (AP) — The 1958 award of the American Committee on Italian Migration was presented to Archbishop Edward F. Hoban of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland at a testimonial banquet Sunday night. The archbishop, who was given a bronze scroll, was honored for his efforts in behalf of Italian immigrants in this country.

Maglie Stops Braves, Gives Five Base Hits

By The Associated Press

Sal Maglie wasn't kidding when he said, "I'll show 'em."

The 41-year-old right-hander was peeved when the New York Yankees shunted him to St. Louis June 14 to make room for a 39-year-old man—Virgil Trucks.

Freddie Hutchinson, Sal's new boss with the Cardinals, gave The Barber a starting chance Sunday against Milwaukee and was rewarded with a 2-1 victory.

Maglie showed signs of weariness in the sixth and seventh so Hutch sent up Irv Noren to bat for him in the eighth inning. Larry Jackson, a workhorse both on relief and starting, retired the last six Braves in a row.

Braves' Lead Cut

The defeat cut the Braves' National League lead to 1½ games as San Francisco beat the Phillies 5-4 in 14 innings on a homer by Willie Kirkland. The Giants also led their second game 1-0 when it was suspended in the sixth by the Sunday curfew. It will be completed later.

Cincinnati, St. Louis and Pittsburgh are bunched in third place 3½ games behind the Braves.

Cincinnati split with Chicago, winning the first on Gus Bell's grand-slam homer 6-2. The Cubs staged a three-run rally in the ninth to take the second game 8-6.

Steve Bilko and Johnny Klippstein, two recently acquired Los Angeles Dodgers, helped their new team win a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 4-1 and 3-2. Klippstein's relief work saved the first game, in which two singles by Dick Gray played a prominent part. Bilko's 10th-inning pinch single scored Joe Pignatano from second base for the second decision.

Gives Up 5 Hits

Maglie held the Braves to five hits in seven innings in a duel with 22-year-old Joey Jay. Two walks by Jay and Ken Boyer's double produced the Cardinal runs in the third.

Willie Mays rejoined the Giants but it was Kirkland, just recalled Saturday from Phoenix, who hit the big blow. Kirkland's homer broke up a tight relief battle between Johnny Antonelli and Ray Semproch.

The Dodgers showed tight defensive play while the Pirates made two costly errors in the first game, in which Bob Friend was chased for the first time in his career for arguing umpire Vic Delmore's calling on balls and strikes.

At Odds With Kramer

Gonzales Balks at Tennis Tour of European Nations

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—Pancho Gonzales figures he can rule professional tennis ranks for five or six more years, but he wants to set his own pace.

That's one reason he is at odds with promoter Jack Kramer, who offered over the week-end to sell Pancho's contract "for a reasonable price." The contract runs through April, 1962.

"I'm just 30 and I know I have some years of good tennis in me although these kids are coming along fast," the swarthy Californian said today, after taking the undisputed lead in the Tournament of Champions.

Kramer wants Gonzales to accompany his troupe to Europe in July. Gonzales is balking, although a trip to Moscow is in the offing. Another legal battle between promoter Kramer and his star attraction conceivably could result.

Gonzales proved himself still king of the pros at the West Side Tennis Club Sunday when he won a grueling match from Ken Rosewall of Australia, seven years his junior, 19-17, 5-7, 6-4.

The victory gave Pancho a 4-0 score in the round robin standings, the only unbeaten player in the field. Rosewall, unbeaten until he met Gonzales, is 4-1 and Lew Hoad is 3-1.

Independents Stop Skid, Take Pair of Big Eight League Wins

The Marion Independents broke out of the slump in Ohio Big Eight League play with a pair of weekend victories. They were the first wins after six straight losses.

Saturday night, the local team clipped Toledo 9-2 and Sunday the Independents posted a 5-4 win over Fostoria, Western Division leader.

The Independents unleashed an 11-hit attack against Toledo's Sands Saturday. They opened the scoring in the first with two runs on one hit, a walk and two errors. Jim Riley got the hit. Three runs were added in the second and three more in the third. The second inning runs came without benefit of a base hit. A walk, two errors, a hit batter and a wild pitch accounted for the runs. In the third, Bob Saull led off with a double and Don Johnson followed suit. Singles by Kempton and Sonny Taylor followed. The final run in the eighth came after a hot by Fritz Walters. He raced home on Saull's outfield fly.

Riley had two for three for Marion with Walters collecting two hits .333, Johnson had two hits and .333. Johnson had two hits and Taylor, the winning pitcher, collected three. Taylor had only four strikeouts but 12 batters popped up to infielders. He walked only one and gave up four hits.

Bud Thorpe was the winner of the Sunday game. He struck out nine, walked four and hit one batter in a six-hit effort.

Marion pushed over three runs in the first on Dick Gherman's single, a stolen base and a single by Walters. Walters then was trapped off second on a ground ball by Saull but he escaped the run-down, taking third with Saull moving to second. Dick Mulvaine lashed a double to drive in both runners.

Four singles accounted for Marion's final two runs in the third. Fostoria scored two in the fourth and one in the seventh. The losers threw a scare into the Marion fans in the ninth. With two men out, a Marion error gave the losers new life. The error was followed by a double and single before the locals could put down the threat. Walters, Saull and Mulvaine each rapped out two hits for the winners.

Patty Berg Captures 7th Women's Western Title

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., today holds her 7th Women's Western Open golf title.

She won the title for the second straight year and picked up a $950 check Sunday at the Kahkwa Country Club with a 75 — two over par — for a 72-hole total of 293.

Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., won second money of $651 with a 297. Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., was third with 299 and won $558. Miss Hansen shot a 74 and Miss Suggs a 73 on the final round.

County Team Nips Vanlue in 4-3 Tilt

Wilson Auctioneers of Green Camp clipped Vanlue 4-3 in a Mid-Ohio League game Sunday at the loser's diamond.

The home team scored two in the first and added one in the sixth. The winners pushed over a run in the second on a triple by Bob Smiley and a single by Merv Stover. Another marker came home in the second on a double by Bob Emmons and a single by Sharrel Leffler.

The Marion County team took the win with a two-run uprising in the top of the seventh. Joe Ambrose opened the rally with a single and a single by Ken Ellwood was folowed by an error, allowing Ambrose to score. Leffler drilled a single to center to account for the winning marker.

Ellwood started on the mound for the Green Camp nine and was relieved by Leffler in the sixth. The two struck out eight Vanlue batters.

Several Vanlue scoring threats were cut down by the Green Camp outfielders. Emmons stopped two threats by throwing out a runner at third and one at second.

Down the Fairway

In weekend golf at the Mar-O-Del course, 40 linksmen competed in a 36-hole handicap tournament covering both Saturday and Sunday. Steve Smith and Gene Jessie wound up in a tie for low net, both making scores of 136. Cliff Willis and Elta Fields were tied for second low with 137-stroke totals.

The event is expected to become a twice-a-month affair.

Mount Gilead golfers will be on hand next Sunday for an inter-club match on the Mar-O-Del course. And, some 35 persons have already signed up for the "Republicans vs. Democrats" tourney slated for July 13.

In Country Club action, 18-hole medal play was a Saturday feature. Getting low net was Jack Weis with a 65. Warren Rowley had a 67, Robert Minard, 68; Maury Cornell, 70; and Les Van Dommelen, also 70.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrials took losses as the stock market declined in moderate trading early this afternoon. Key stocks dropped from fractions to about a point.

Steels, motors, chemicals, oils and nonferrous metals were mainly in the downside. Rails were narrowly mixed. Utilities edged off irregularly.

Airlines presented a string of small plus signs as earnings were reported improved.

American Motors was actively traded and down around a point.

The market was backgrounded by uncertainties about the steel price as well as prospects for a summer downturn in production of steel; and also by a reported decline in machine tool orders.

Gains of about a point were made by Lorillard, Goodyear and Standard Packaging. American Tobacco, Boeing and Schenley made fractional gains. United Air Lines and Eastern were firm.

U.S. Steel and Youngstown Sheet were down about a point each while Republic Steel and Bethlehem lost fractions. Major automotive stocks showed little change. A loss of about a point by Anaconda and a good-sized fraction by Phelps Dodge highlighted the metals. Kennecott. International Nickel and American Smelting showed scant change.

Standard Oil (N.J.) dropped about a point. Texas Co. and Royal Dutch lost fractions.

U.S. government bonds drifted lower in quiet dealings over the counter.

C&O Wreck Injures 10 in West Virginia

THURMOND, W.Va. (AP) — "The brakes just wouldn't stop her," said engineer H. W. Honaker after his 144-car freight train rammed into the rear of a halted luxury passenger train on the Chesapeake and Ohio mainline.

Honaker, 66, was one of four crewmen and six passengers hospitalized after the crash. None of the passengers were seriously injured.

The passenger train, the George Washington, was en route from Newport News, Va., to Cincinnati.

Seven passenger and three freight cars were derailed.

Honaker said there were 50 cars loaded with ore at the rear of his freight, and "the ore shoved the engine."

Honaker was trapped in the cab for about two hours. Workers used torches to cut him out. He suffered a broken leg.

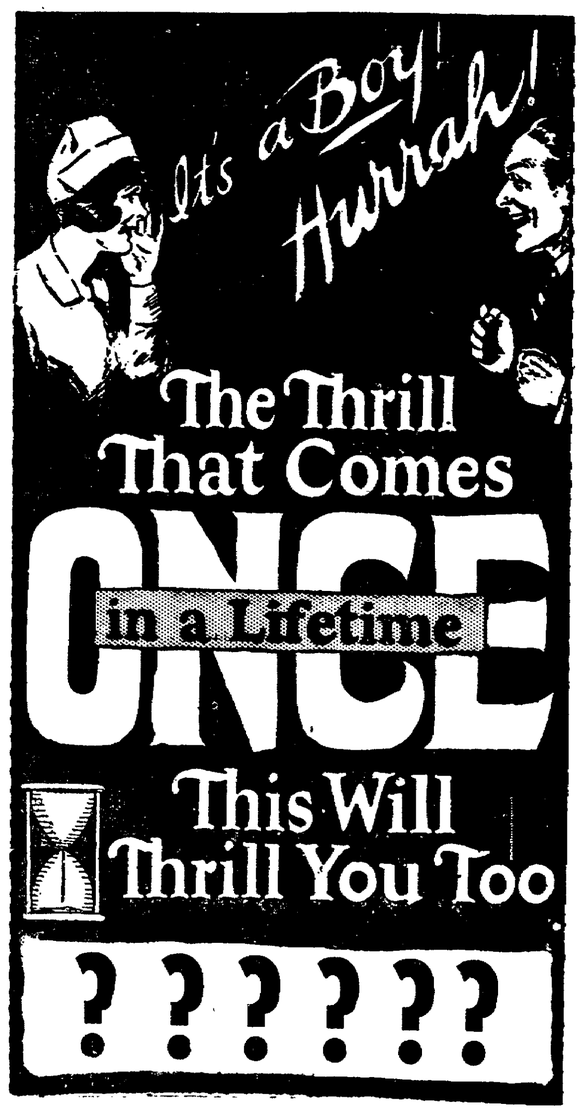
Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.



Child, 4, Has Operation After Attack of Choking

Betty Jo Young, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Young of 418 S. Grand Ave., was listed today in "fairly good" condition at Marion General Hospital where she was taken late Saturday after suffering a choking spell.

The inhalator squad was called to the Young home at 6:25 p.m. and the aspirator was used two minutes. She then was rushed to the hospital in the fire chief's car.

The child's mother reported this morning that no foreign object was located in the youngster's throat and the seizure had been caused by a narrowing of her trachea. An emergency operation was performed Saturday night to relieve the condition.

According to Mrs. Young, the girl will be removed to Children's Hospital in Columbus Wednesday for further observation.

DEEPEST SALT MINE

The popular lunchtime snack, the sandwich, was invented by the Earl of Sandwich in the 1700's. The Earl loved to play cards so much that he wouldn't stop to go to the dining room to eat. He had slices of meat put between two slices of bread to eat while he continued playing.

NECESSARY INVENTION

The world's deepest salt mine is located near Grand River, O., across the river from Fairport Harbor. The salt to be mined at Grand River is of a type that will find great demand in the chemical industry, but about 60 per cent of the production will be channeled into ice control work by municipalities.

'Separate Tables' Will Begin 6-Day Run at Playhouse

WORTHINGTON — Two short plays set against the same background of a second-rate residential hotel in an English seaside town, and grouped under the title of "Separate Tables," will begin a six-day engagement this Monday at Playhouse-on-the-Green north of Worthington.

Written by Terence Rattigan, author of "The Winslow Boy," "O Mistress Mine" and "The Browning Version," "Separate Tables" had an enormous success when it was presented for a two-year run in London, and it repeated this success in a 42-week run in New York in the 1956-57 season.

In the first play, "Table by the Window,' 'a man and the woman who had once been his wife, are thrown together under dramatic circumstances.

The second play, "Table No. 7," centers around a bogus ex-major and a gawky, mother-dominated spinster between whom a gingerly sympathy grows up.

William Whitman, Humphrey Davis, Thomas Barbour, Laurinda Barrett, Sally Kemp, Mary Woolverton, and Kathleen Roland will appear in "Separate Tables."

The United Cigar Store in Marion is handling tickets.

Choruses To Be Organized at 'Y' For Girls' Groups

Grade school and junior-senior high school choruses will be organized at the Marion YMCA this week as part of the "Y" program of summer activities.

Miss Nell Bailey, women's and girls secretary at the YMCA, will begin rehearsals with the grade school girls Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., and with the high school girls Thursday at the same time.

The groups will meet each Tuesday and Thursday, respectively, throughout the summer.

Miss Bailey said there will be no tryouts and that any YMCA girl, of eligible age, may participate.

Beginning Friday at the "Y" is a beginner's sketching class under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Ferguson. The class will meet at 10 a.m.

Registration for these classes may be made at the adult desk at the YMCA For non-Y-members, wishing to participate, summer YMCA memberships may be purchased at a cost of $4 for grade school youth and $5 for junior and senior high school girls and boys.

This amount may later be applied on a yearly membership, if so desired.
